

HELIX® 3006

HexArmor®

Innovation intertwined with safety. That's the DNA of the Helix® Series. The Helix® 3006 features a high-comfort 15-gauge nylon knit shell and back-of-hand IR-X® Impact Exoskeleton™ with level 2 impact protection.

The sandy nitrile palm coating offers abrasion and puncture resistance at the palm providing wearers with a solid grip in dry or wet situations. The 3006 also features touchscreen capabilities.
